

FIBER CONNECTIONS
The Gallery at the Library
123-A Bavarian Hills Plaza, Herman, MO 65041
August 2 – October 18, 2024

Fiber Connections: is a Missouri Fiber Artists (MoFA) members' only juried exhibit, exploring fiber forms and materials. Become a member by joining on MoFA's website www.missourifiberartists.org

Artists' statements, 150 characters for each artwork, are to be submitted, in order to add to the juror's understanding of your artwork. An Artist's Statement is a narrative about your work, not a description.

Jurors: Lynette Watts and Bartow Molloy will be our jurors, and our speakers at the opening.

Lynette Watts, a native of the Arkansas Delta, completed her degree in studio art at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. After a career in the non-profit sector, she has returned to creating art full time at her studio in Herman, MO. Her focus is mixed media sculptures and shrines. Fiber is among her materials. An Honorable mention was awarded to her at the Delta Exhibition at the Arkansas Arts Center, known as the Arkansas Museum of Fine Arts.

Bartow Molloy was born and raised in St. Louis, Missouri, attended Colorado State University where she majored in art. Currently residing in Hermann, Missouri, she is a glass-on-glass mosaic artist, having sold over one hundred mosaics over the past seven years. She won first place at the Mosaic Art Fair in 2017.
